

2021 Nominees

Senior Warden Nominee: Dan Fulton

Dan Fulton has been attending St. John's since 2016, when he and his family moved to Columbia from Bexley, OH. He lives in Columbia with his wife, Katie, and their youngest son, Hugh. Raised Methodist, Dan joined the Episcopal church in 1989. He served as volunteer youth leader and on the vestry of St. John's (Memphis, TN), and, at St. Alban's (Bexley, OH), as youth leader (with Katie), lay reader, chalice, acolyte coordinator, senior high (J2A) teacher, webmaster and Vestry, as well as on the Youth Council, Worship, Communications and Search Committees. At the Diocese of Southern Ohio level, Dan served on the board of the Episcopal Community Services Foundation (ECSF), as a trustee and treasurer, and served on the diocesan Finance Committee by appointment of the Bishop. He attended the 2007 Diocesan Convention as an alternate delegate and the 2008 and 2009 conventions as a delegate. At St. John's, Dan currently serves as a lay reader and chalice bearer and on the Vestry. Dan received his Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Memphis and his MBA from Capital University. He is currently employed as a Lean Program Manager at Palmetto GBA, a subsidiary of Blue Cross Blue Shield of South Carolina.

Junior Warden Nominee: Mike McCauley

Occupation - Government and public affairs consultant

Family - Spouse: Lauren Scott McCauley; Children: two boys, Camden (6) and William (4)

Parish Experience - Vestry member; Men of St. John's board member; Newcomers

Committee; 3rd-5th grade Sunday School teacher; Usher; Hand Backpack Program, Service in the Soda City, and Saturday of Service volunteer; Connections; Wednesday night programs

Diocesan Experience - Before moving to Columbia in 2016, I was active in the Dioceses of South Carolina and Washington, DC for 20 years, including terms as Senior Warden and Junior Warden of St. Alban's Chapel at The Citadel; receiving the Capt. John Coussons scholarship and medal for leadership in Episcopal campus ministry; attending two diocesan conventions; and participating in diocesan activities while a member of the Cathedral of St. Luke & St. Paul and later Grace Church Cathedral

Community Involvement - Chair, School Improvement Council, A.C. Moore Elementary; member, Shandon Neighborhood Council; volunteer, Beloved ecumenical ministry for people with special needs and their families

Diocesan Delegate & Alternate Nominees

Diocesan Delegate:

Janine Lewis

Diocesan Alternate:

Katherine Templeton

Diocesan Alternate:

Jackie Barber

Vestry Nominees

Jessica Lovelace

Jessica Lovelace and her family have attended St. John's since 2014 when their son, Cannon was born. Raised Presbyterian, Jessica grew up at Madison Presbyterian Church in Madison, Georgia. She was an active member on the Northeast Georgia Presbytery Youth Council and served in different capacities at the Montreat Youth Conference each year. At St. John's, Jessica is involved with the Connections group and currently serves on the Guild of the Flowering Cross. Additionally, she is involved with youth Sunday School. Jessica moved to Columbia in 2004 after earning a Bachelor's degree in History from Presbyterian College. She lives in the Heathwood area with her husband, Harper, and their children, Cannon (6) and Cora (2). Jessica is currently the Assistant Deputy Director for Administration at the South Carolina Department of Corrections.

Chris Patrick

Chris Patrick has been attending St. John's since 2014, when he and his family moved to Lexington from Greenville. He lives in Lexington with his wife, Claiborne, and their two sons Garrett (6) and Will (4). Raised Catholic, Chris joined the Episcopal church in 2013. He served as volunteer youth basketball coach for the Christ Church middle school team (Greenville, SC) At St. John's, Chris currently serves as a member of the Men of St. John's and an Usher. Chris has also help with EYC and the Middle School Sunday class. Chris attended Charleston Southern University. He is currently employed as an adjuster at Progressive Insurance Company.

Jordan Mancini

Jordan has been attending St. John's since 2005, when she and her husband were expecting their first child. She lives in Columbia with her husband, Michael and their two girls, Walker and Ellie. Jordan was raised in the Presbyterian Church in Greenville, SC and attended Christ Church Episcopal School. While in college, she attended Grace Episcopal Church in Charleston. She has been an active member of St. John's teaching Sunday School to our youth for many years. She has also served on the Service Ministry Committee, volunteered with Family Promise and acted as an adult volunteer with Service in the Soda City. Jordan received her Bachelor's in Psychology from the College of Charleston. She is currently self-employed as an event planner and chapter coordinator for commercial real estate groups in North and South Carolina.

Caroline Tevepaugh

Caroline Tevepaugh is a lifelong member of St. John's. She grew up attending Sunday School and EYC, as well serving as an acolyte. During high school, Caroline attended many Diocesan youth events and Happening at Camp Gravatt. During college, Caroline worked as a counselor at Camp Gravatt for three summers. After college, she worked in the church nursery and volunteered to assist with VBS and other children's programs. Caroline attends St. John's regularly with her husband Will and children, Sawyer and Mary Walker, along with her parents, Bob and Sallie Reynolds. Through the years, Caroline has been involved with various ministries, including: Sunday School (adult and children's), St. Anne's Guild, ECW, Kanuga Parish Weekend co-chair, Hand backpacks, Sunday morning breakfasts, and Wednesday night programs. Caroline received her B.S. in Early Childhood Education from Presbyterian College. After working with children for several years, she made a career change. Caroline has been employed by the SC Office of Rural Health for the past ten years.

Charlie Sterne

Charlie Sterne has been a member of St. John's since 1971, when his family moved to Columbia while his father was stationed at Fort Jackson. He and his wife Sara have two children, Madison and Fletcher. While being at St. John's for nearly half a century, Charlie has been involved with numerous outreaches of the church with the exception of Vestry. He has served on the board of Men of the Church, the renovation of Heyward Hall, Boy Scouts, led work trips in his younger days and is currently the coordinator of the youth basketball teams. Charlie serves on the boards of the East Columbia Rotary and the Columbia Music Festival Association. He is a graduate from the University of South Carolina and is a sales rep for Meridian Brick and Masonry Sales.

Revision of the Parish By-Laws

Shall the By-Laws of St. John's, Shandon, be revised as follows?

from

Section 4.01 The Vestry shall consist of fifteen (15) members chosen from among the members in good standing of the congregation who have been confirmed in the Episcopal Church (or other church of the Anglican Communion), 18 years old or more, together with the Rector, if there be one.

to

Section 4.01 The Vestry shall consist of fifteen (15) members chosen from among the baptized members in good standing of the congregation who have been confirmed in the Episcopal Church (or other church of the Anglican Communion), 18 years old or more, together with the Rector, if there be one.